The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

A View of Reapportionment

The one-man one-vote concept is the basis for reapportionment of supervisorial boundaries. To achieve that purpose is simplicity itself. The county could be whacked up into pie cuts with the points at Civic Center and the cuts widening out to the north, south and east. The cuts could be made so that 271,571 persons would be in each of the five supervisorial cuts with the cuts narrowed or widened to accommodate one-fifth of the county's 1,357,854 people.

But the fine art of political maneuvering is ever present in such changes. One of the results of this is the lumpy boundaries that now exist, with some districts wrapping around the other. Whether final changes are for the benefit of the people or for the benefit of individual supervisors soon will be manifest. The County Board of Supervisors attack the problem starting today and if politics is put to one side the project should be soon finished allowing for long term benefit to all.

Our concern is with the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area presently hooked on to the San Diego-North Park area of Harry Scheidle's Third District. Supervisor Scheidle is popular in the San Diego area. This is understandable since he served as a City Councilman for many years. He is less popular in the county areas of his district where he is less well known. One proposal which already has considerable support among east county leaders would overcome that problem. The proposal was made by Supervisor Henry Boney three times and as far back as 1967. Basically, it would create North, South and East County districts in addition to two metropolitan area districts.

It would give Jack Walsh in District 1, the waterfront area including La Jolla which he now has, and Coronado, which he would inherit from Henry Boney. The population is 271,245.

Henry Boney's District 2 would remove Scheidle's spearhead into the East County by lopping it off at College avenue. It would put Lemon Grove and Spring Valley back into Boney's district which already contains La Mesa, El Cajon and the area east and south. He would give Chula Vista, Imperial Beach and Bonita to Jim Bear. The population would be 271,147.

Harry Scheidle's 3rd District, shortened at the east end, would be extended westward to State 5. It would take up some of Walsh's former district to the north and west. The population of District 3 would be 272,289.

Jim Bear's 4th District would be extended south to include Chula Vista and Imperial Beach, areas previously in Boney's district. Bear's boundaries would be the bay on the west; North Park on the north, and the U.S.-Mexican border on the south. It still touches Encanto and Otay Reservoir on the east. Bear and Walsh would be responsive to the metropolitan area. Bear's district would have a population of 271,462.

The 5th District is William Craven's. It is a wide-ranging district once lightly populated. But now the explosion growth has hit the North County and it takes less territory to average out the population. It really doesn't make much sense that Santee and Lakeside, with east county interests, should be lumped in with the north dairy and ranch land people as it is now. Craven's boundaries would be moved north from El Cajon's north boundary to a line running east-west through San Vicente Reservoir. His district would have a population of 271,700.

Dan Cherrier, County Director of Planning, in a memo to the supervisors said that the problem of redistricting should be minimal. Major differences, he pointed out, would be in

Pickets To March Again At L.G. Nude Dance Spot

Lemon Grove's "nude picketeers" are being joined this week by a re-inforcement squad, it was learned Monday.

The pickets, teen-age members of the Skyline Weslyan Methodist church of Lemon Grove, do not picket in the nude as the lead infers. They picket The Naughty Spot, a saloon at 7268 Broadway which advertises "completely nude dancers."

They have been picketing the saloon for two weeks carrying placards urging patrons to try something more moral than watching naked young women. As many as 50 youngsters have been picketing the place.

This week they are being joined by a group associated with Campus Life. According to Dennis Schmitke, club director for the local chapter of the nationwide religious organization, pickets from his group are joining the activity this week. They were scheduled to march Wednesday and Thursday. Fifty or more will be in the line of march, it was said.

The Skyline church group are marching Friday and Saturday, according to Pastor Dale Bailey, youth pastor of the church.

The Rev. Orville Butcher, pastor of the Skyline church believes the marchers are effective. "The contacts our youngsters make with those who plan to pay to watch nude young ladies indicate many persons have not thought it out as a moral concept. The youngsters are not trying to stop patronage — just asking those who ask questions to give their action some deeper thought."

The plan to carry cameras together with placards reading "Smile, your picture is being taken" and "Watch for your picture in the local newspaper" did not materialize last week. Both Pastor Bailey and Dennis Schmitke planned to have cameramen there this week.

A slightly embarrassing situation occurred last week when a party of administrators from a local high school was recognized by the youngsters as the administrators were entering the saloon. They chatted with the youngster and decided not to enter the place, an observer said. Most of the picketers attend Mt. Miguel High school. The administrators were not from there.

In photo, Hensley goes over routine with Fred Dixon, who today becomes the new chief. Pappy Hensley first came to the Lemon Grove District in March of 1951, serving as a call man. In December of 1952, he became chief. His background as a firefighter also includes five years with the Lawrence, Kansas Fire Department, and ten years with the Convair Fire Depatrment.

Dixon's background also includes work with the Convair Department, where he served with Hensley. He came to Lemon Grove in 1952, became a captain in 1955, and became assistant chief in 1956.

Bus Schedule Changed

Bus schedules are being reduced in most parts of the county effective July 4 it was announced this week.

The schedule for Route F, the route serving Lemon Grove, will have only minor changes. It will be unchanged from downtown San Diego to Lemon Grove but "F" will no longer serve La Mesa. Instead, it will terminate at Broadway and Sweetwater rd.

Routing from downtown San Diego to Lemon Grove is unchanged but once entering Lemon Grove the new route will be: From the intersection of Broadway and Imperial ave., right onto Broadway, left onto Washington st. at St. John of the Cross church, right onto Imperial ave. and right onto Broadway to the new terminal. Inbound service is via Broadway, left onto Imperial and then the regular route.

The Spring Valley loop will continue to operate from the intersection of Broadway and Imperial via right onto Broadway, right onto Campo rd. and then follow the present route to return to the new terminal in Lemon Grove.

The new routing abandons service along Imperial ave. between Broadway and Washington st.

Woman Sentenced to Jail For S.V. Kennel Violation

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The writ blocking a six-month jail term for a Spring Valley woman on grounds that she violated her probation for failing to clean up her kennel was lifted Tuesday in Superior Court.

Judge Franklin B. Orfield ruled that El Cajon's Municipal Court Judge Thomas G. Duffy had properly revoked the probation and ordered the jail term for Mrs. Mildred Martin, of 9171 Harness St., Spring Valley.

Mrs. Martin, who was in the courtroom with her attorney, Billy Hulsey Frank, has had more than 1,000 animals and birds on her property, about a third of an acre, evidence in the litigation showed. A complaint was filed against her on Nov. 4, 1970, by W. H. Von Gunden, a neighbor, charging noise, bad smells, flies and dangers to health.

Mrs. Martin failed to appear for trial on Feb. 10, and a bench warrant was issued for her arrest. She turned up on Feb. 17 and was released on bail of $125. At her trial on April 15 Mrs. Martin withdrew her plea of not guilty. She was put on three years' probation, fined $25 and ordered to clean up the kennel. Judge Duffy told her she faced six months in the county jail and a fine of $500 if she failed to meet the conditions of her probation.

But the Von Gundens and other neighbors complained in early May that conditions were worse than ever. A report by Jack Kern, county animal shelter officer, described it as the most flagrant violation pertinent to humane treatment of animals, specifically the undescribably filthy conditions of her so-called cattery."

A spokesman for the county health department told Judge Duffy the county and The Humane Society were prepared to file criminal charges against Mrs. Martin. The latter's attorney was present at this session.

Judge Duffy then told the attorney he would order Mrs. Martin to cease all activities with animals at the Spring Valley address. The judge gave Mrs. Martin 30 days to conform.

Judge Duffy on May 27 also put off until June 10 sending Mrs. Martin to the county jail, and the day before that Mrs. Martin obtained a writ of prohibition preventing the judge from acting claiming that the steps against her had been unconstitutional.

Judge Orfield said Tuesday it was obvious that the place was "undescribably filthy," that Mrs. Martin had violated her probation and that Judge Duffy had acted legally in revoking that probation, with the jail term.

Board Approves Preliminary School Budget

At its regular meeting June 21, the Governing Board of the Grossmont High School District adopted a tentative budget for 1971-72 in the amount of $24,051,442, assuming a continuation of the 1970-71 operating tax rate of $2.678.

It was understood that some additional tax rate will be required for program improvement during the coming year but that projections could not be made until the board has had an opportunity to determine suggested program levels which would provide a basis for so doing.

It was further understood that implications for tax rate regarding capital outlay projects would be deferred until the district's assessed valuation estimate can be revised on the basis of actual data released by the County Auditor and Controller and until the state support situation or the date of the budget hearing is firm, whichever happens first.

The pending bond election was discussed, with a final decision by the Board to hold an election October 19 for an undetermined amount. Figures of seventeen and twenty-five million dollars both received considerable attention by the Board.

July Fourth Is Time To Recognize Freedom

Editor's Note: Don Amundson, an English teacher at Mount Miguel High School, is a veteran of four years with the United States Air Force. He holds BS and MS degrees from the University of Alabama and is a member of the Grossmont Education Association and the California Teachers Association.

He recently spent three years with the University of the Seven Seas aboard a ship that tours the world, serving as director of admissions and teaching geography. In 1968 he received the Valley Forge Teachers Medal for helping to achieve a better understanding of the American way of life.

By Don Amundson

The Fourth of July is a time to recognize and enjoy our freedoms. It is also a time to recognize the vital role of education in maintaining our freedoms. In our society the educator cultivates certain values, and those values should include a sound knowledge of our heritage and our fundamental freedoms.

Our world presents many conflicting ideologies, and our democracy is constantly under attack. In our schools, we must strengthen the cause of democracy by training students specifically for democracy. We cannot be vague and general in our instruction. We must teach our students the contributions of men and women who have made America great, and we must teach a pride and loyalty to the ways in which we have achieved and maintained our freedoms and liberties. This applies equally to the teaching of virtues, self-reliance, economics, and character.

Where does the educator begin? We can begin by teaching our youth the character of early American statesmen responsible for our individual liberties, and we can interpret the ways this ideal character has brought progress and achievement. Through progress, achievement, and related factors, the educator can develop within the student a greater appreciation for our American way of life and a realization of the values freedom brings to the individual.

Educational programs in American heritage should be incorporated into every social studies curriculum. The course content should be given primary attention and not be incidental to the course of instruction. Strong emphasis on well-organized and timely units of study will develop a clear understanding and a conscious sense of loyalty to the American tradition of democracy.

If American education operated on a system of priorities, it would be reasonable to assume that items of most importance would include the social, economic, and political phases of our country's organization and development. Likewise, it should be a tradition on the part of every school system to emphasize good citizenship and a full understanding of freedom and democracy. These goals cannot be achieved outside of the school. The school atmosphere offers many valuable social situations, and the teaching of Americanism must become an important part of that same school environment.

Presently we see adverse economic conditions that are imposing a burden upon our freedoms and our democratic rights. American values are being jeopardized by current forces of inflation attributed largely to the powerful influence of labor unions. Our young people must learn how these interrelated forces harm our economy and endanger our entire political system. They must see how free enterprise is related to our economy.

Our schools teach young people the harmful effects of drugs and narcotics; our schools promote deeper respect for law and order; and, in similar manner, our schools should provide greater knowledge in the areas of American culture. The failure to meet these obligations is largely a matter of discretion or priority. Some of our schools lack adequate personnel to integrate new and effective programs; it is costly to add appreciable content and personnel to a curriculum; and often worthy programs are hindered by an apathetic public which is unwilling to support education economically and philosophically.

The training for democracy is the greatest challenge to American education; and it demands the combined cooperation of every agency and institution. No enterprise is more important to the American educator than training young people for democratic ideals and the preservation of our fundamental freedoms. Some brave Americans have lost their freedoms. American prisoners in Vietnam look to freedom as the prime motive for survival. Freedom is their only hope to reunite with their families in a country where freedom assures them of justice and respect and democratic rights as citizens. We should not have to lose our freedom in order to prize it so highly.

County Gives Help To Permit Seekers

Is the building permit "run-around" over?

The supervisors think it is.

Beginning this week the County initiates its first one-stop service for building inspection, planning, and county engineer permits. Additionally, health permits will be issued on a one-stop basis.

One-stop service will be available at La Mesa and Vista offices. The La Mesa office is at 8054 Allison st.

The new service starts today. Until now, residents with various building needs in outlying areas could drive as much as 100 miles for permits.

Permits requiring hearings of some sort will be handled as before but local offices will issue the proper forms and explain how to fill them out.

Engineering issues six types of permits: moving, excavation, construction, encroachment, grading, tree trimming and planting. Some of these may be issued within a half-hour, while the applicant waits. Datafax microwave equipment has been installed which will send the application to the main office by facsimile, and a permit can be issued on the spot. Where permits require considerable checking, the local office will aid in the filling of applications.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

A great philosopher once said "Yo pienso, por eso yo soy." (I think therefore I am.). The concept "Yo pienso" (I think) was philosophically expressed by Descarte to describe his connotation of existence. The literal meaning of "yo pienso" has changed and taken on a different interpretation in Spanish.

"Yo pienso" can also mean "I intend." For it to assume this meaning it is usually followed by an infinitive. Thus "Yo pieson comer." would be translated "I intend to eat." and "Yo pienso dormir." is the way to say "I intend to sleep."

"Pensar" is the root from which "pienso" is constructed. "Pensar" is also an infinitive form which means "to think." It might be used in an expression like "Tengo que pensar." (I have to think.) or "No quiero pensar." (I don't want to think.).

"Pensar" is a slightly irregular verb. When we change it to say "Yo pienso" (I think) you will note that we have replaced the letter "e" with the letters "ie." This also occurs when we say "ella pienso" for "she thinks" and "usted piensa" for "you think."

"Pensamos estudiar" means "We intend to study." "Pensamos" is one form in which the letter "e" does not change to "ie." The suffix "amos" that appears with "pensamos" is an indicator to tell us that the understood subject is "we." Occasionally the subject "nosotros" (we) is stressed and appears with this type phrase as seen in "Nosotros pensamos aprender." (We intend to learn.).

Practice phrases listed below reflect the use of "pensar" with the meaning of "intend" and "think." You may wish to learn these phrases with the aid of the recorded voice that says them for you when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

NAME YOUR POISON — The San Diego County Sheriff's Narcotic Education Kit probably has a sample. Deputy Sheriffs Mike O'Connor, left, and Louis Carrillo check the contents of their demonstration kit in preparation for another narcotics "block party" where they will discuss drug abuse problems with interested parents. For eights months Deputies O'Connor and Carrillo and Sgt. Oscar Morlett have been telling parents in the cities and countryside of San Diego County the facts about drugs to help them fight the problem.

Parents Learn About Drug Use From Community Relations Detail

"My girl is only in fifth grade and already she's picking up drug talk. How do I help her stay away from drugs?"

"Is marijuana really harmful?"

"But how do you tell if they're on drugs?"

"I never thought of it touching our home — but last week a boy down the street was arrested. What can we do?"

These are some of the questions asked of the men who know the answers — Sgt. Oscar Morlett and Deputy Sheriffs Mike O'Connor and Louis Carrillo of the San Diego County Sheriff's community relations detail.

"Parents are beginning to realize that their kids — even in elementary school — know more about drugs than they do," O'Connor says. "Parents want to know what it's all about, and we're here to tell them."

For eight months, Morlett, O'Connor, and Carrillo have been "telling it like it is" at adult only block parties throughout San Diego County. The first was given by Morlett in a parent's home in Imperial Beach. The idea caught on and the three men have been ranging over the County, presenting the programs for groups of mothers in the day and mothers and fathers in the evenings.

Concerned parents gather in a neighborhood home where the atmosphere is relaxed and they can talk freely. They hear the facts about drug abuse, see slides of drugs and users, are shown actual drugs in various forms — pills and capsules, vials of heroin, hypodermics and smoking devices, marijuana as it is grown and as it is smoked.

A bit of marijuana is burned so they can learn to identify the smell. Morlett recalls a mother suddenly sitting up and exclaiming, "But that's what I smelled the other day — at home!"

The question and answer period is often an eye-opener. As the parents talk, they discover their own naivete about the problem and begin to realize their own participation in the drug scene. Most of them admit to taking sleeping pills, tranquilizers, diet pills, pep pills, and casually discussing it in front of their children; they see how this can color children's acceptance of drugs as an everyday part of life.

"For one thing," says Carrillo, "today's is a highly competitive society. Parents put pressure on kids to be something the parents want them to be rather than what the child wants to be. More people need to listen to what their children are thinking and feeling."

"Too many parents feel that drugs are someone else's problem — it can't happen in their home," said O'Connor. "But this isn't so. Drugs touch the lives of every teenager today, regardless of social or economic level."

"Parents can only help by being knowledgeable about drug abuse, by being able to talk with their kids on a basis of facts, not emotion," said Morlett.

Interested groups may contact the San Diego County Sheriff's community relations office and schedule their block parties, O'Connor said.

"Drugs are becoming a national tragedy, but the combat lines must be drawn in the home and the neighborhood. The Sheriff's prgram tries to give parents the tools to deal with the problem," he added.

108-Bed Retirement Project To Be Built on Skyline Drive

A special use permit has been granted for a 108 bed retirement project in Lemon Grove on 4.9 acres on Skyline drive about 300 feet south of Alton. The property is adjacent the Lemon Grove Lutheran church and the project will represent a $400,000 investment, according to Glenn Pierce, of El Cajon, one of the principals. Others include Bruce Van Horn of San Diego, and Mrs. Verna Miller and her son Bruce Miller. The Millers operate six convalescent-type homes in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area, including Dayton Manor in Lemon Grove. The six have a total of 76 beds.

Mrs. Miller has operated such establishments for 25 years.

Bruce Miller said the development will specialize in moderate cost services. He said the permit is for the "first phase" of the development. He would not estimate how big the final size would be.

He noted that the development would add materially to tax base of the Lemon Grove school district "without adding to the district's population burden."

"It is a retirement home, not a convalescent facility," he said.

Shea Family Stars in 'THE GRADUATES' As 400 Help Mark 25th Anniversary

More than 400 guests, many of them neighbors, helped Dr. and Mrs. Peter Shea, and their thriving family, mark the couple's 25th wedding anniversary.

Dr. Shea, a long time Lemon Grove dentist, and his wife, Pat, held the celebration at Admiral Kidd Officers Club Sunday with a champagne punch and luncheon.

The event was announced through a cleverly designed "theatre program" titled "THE QUARTERLY CENTURY SHEA."

It had caricatures of the youngsters in the family showing Pat, 21, who is being graduated from Stanford U carrying a brief case marked "ASSU President." Pat had just received a Phi Beta Kapp key and will attend Harvard Law School this fall.

Terre, 18, is shown in her cap and gown as she is being graduated from Sacred Heart Greenfield Hills school, and Casey, 14, also in cap and gown, as a Blessed Sacrament grad. It shows Tim, 23, starring in "THE INTERN" with a caption that reads "To Be Released in '73". Tim is attending Cal. Medical College of Podiatry and is president of the student body. Dan, 11, is pictured at a piano. He entertained the group with "It's a Small World" during the afternoon.

The program announced that the players are "from the original cast of 'Father Knows Best' and 'I Remember Mama'" and it was listed as the "Dr. Peter and Pat Shea 1971 production of "The Graduates.".

In addition to the Shea family were Tim's fiance, Angela Maria Neville of San Francisco, her mother and two brothers. Miss Neville was graduated this year from the U. of SF School of Nursing.

After Dan's presentation, Terri gave her parents a two-finger engraved piece which she said was the 1st Silver Anniversary Touche. She said the two fingers meant "love and peace".

Toastmaster for the event was Cmdr. Tim Hallahan a long time friend. Mrs. Hallahan was a bridesmaid at Mrs. Shea's wedding.

Responding to the toasts for the Sheas was the doctor's brother Richard. Joe White, Mrs. Shea's brother responded for that side of the family. White, a member of the San Diego Sun Harbor Chorus, flew in from New Orleans for the party after his group won international second place in the Barbershop Quartet contests there.

Attending were Msgr. John McDonagh and Father Pat Pearney, both of St. John of the Cross church; and Msgr. John Dickey, superintendent of Catholic schools. They, and others, played important parts in the Shea's lives.

Their neighbors, the Van Hollands, hand-carved a wooden ship with figures of all the Sheas in it. It carried the legend, "Smooth Sailing for the Seven Sheas".

Other gifts included a silver bowl from Mrs. Shea's three brothers and a champagne cooler from the Shea family.

Mail Bag

Dear Editor:

I recently read the letter in "Mail Bag" in the June 17th issue of your newspaper signed "Name withheld by request", regarding the Mount Miguel yearbook. I am a member of that staff and I am writing in defense of our book.

This woman (who was afraid to sign her name) stated "a yearbook should be something to be treasured and shown to one's children." She also stated that she wondered if the Mount Miguel students would be proud to show this to anyone in the future. No, I feel many students will not be proud to show this book in the future. Our yearbook portrayed what did happen instead of what should have happened. If we won't be proud to show it to anyone, who's fault will that be?

Our yearbook was not one of looking at the last year through rose-colored glasses. Our school year was one of "pure apathy".

She also states the theme is supposed to be "reaching out" yet the word apathy continues to pop up. I fail to see her complaint. How else can one erase apathy except by reaching out to one another?

The obscenity written on the wall was just one example of the vandalism on the majority of the walls at school.

The picture of the "passing of the joint" typified the oppressive drug situation at Mount Miguel. Although I realize some people are not mature enough to face these facts, they are prominent problems.

In regard to the sophomore bringdown, the year after one is a freshman, is one of comical awkwardness. Perhaps it has been too long since she was a sophomore. I'm sure there was no criticism intended.

My last defense is in regard to the reference to our pride in the school apathy. Who says just because you point out a fault you are taking pride in that fault? Drawing attention to these situations is he first step into a new and better future.

Our book was what is considered a social comment book, which is portraying the whole, true school year. It is not a hearts and flowers memory book.

It might be interesting to note that there was not one book left unsold!

We are confident that these arousements will bring about a more spirited 1972 school year.

Not afraid to sign my name,

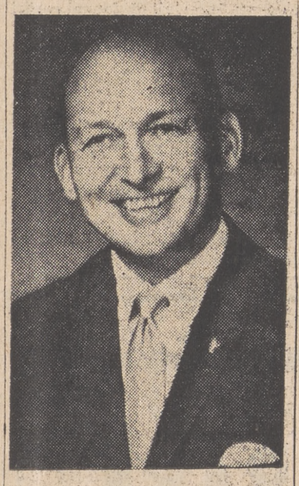
Dr. Brumbaugh Named Diplomat In A.B. of F.P.



Dr. Simon C. Brumbaugh, Jr. of the Lemon Grove Medical Group has been notified that he has successfully completed the examination to become a Diplomat of the American Board of Family Practice.

Dr. Brumbaugh has been practicing in Lemon Grove since 1952 and has been a member of the American Academy of General Practice since 1954. In 1970 the American Board of Family Practice was established which is one of 20 specialty primary boards in the United States. This specialty is now recognized by the American Medical Association and is listed in the Directory of Medical Specialists.

The American Board of Family Practice is the first specialty board that has been established which required an examination for membership rather than automatically including all people that are in this specialty practice at the time of the establishment of the board.

Kiwanis To Accelerate Ticket Sales

Southern California Kiwanis Clubs will accelerate their annual campaign this week to raise funds for orothopedic devices, major operations, crossed-eye corrections, hospital bed costs and other services for crippled children.

The needed funds are gained through the sale of tickets to the service organization's 32nd annual benefit baseball game. This year's contest is scheduled for August 18 and features the Los Angeles Dodgers against the New York Mets in a National League game at Dodger Stadium.

"Game tickets must be obtained in advance through Kiwanis in order for the drive to be successful," it is pointed out by "Hap" Halligan, game chairman, from the sponsoring Kiwanis Crippled Children Foundation of West Hollywood.

He also said each participating Kiwanis Club retains a portion of its ticket sale re-projects within its own community.
community.

President Dr. Paul Califano of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis said tickets can be obtained by calling 463-2354 or 469-4134.

Dump Rates Hike Planned

User fees at county dump sites have been increased for the first time in four years, according to Case Houson, the county's director of sanitation and flood control.

Houson's department operates nine landfill disposal sites in the western half of the County. It was intended that about two-thirds of the cost of this service would be recovered through user fees collected at the sites, he said.

The current fee schedule was established in 1967, but operation costs have risen substantially since then. The Board of Supervisors has set a new fee schedule to take effect today.

Typical fees will be:

Cars and station wagons, 50 cents; pickups, $1; commercial trash trucks, $3.75 to $9; and any vehicle with a load less than 15 cubic feet, 50 cents.

Complete schedules of the new fees will be posted at each entrance. The sites are open seven days a week from 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

WWI Pilots Meet

Two World War One overseas pilots from this area were among nine who met Thursday at North Island Naval Station to form a local organization.

One, Dr. V. Van Zele, of 8302 Golden ave., flew with the Italian Air Force from Foggia. The other, H. H. Karr, of La Mesa, was a WWI Navy flyer. Another flyer, D. D. Young of La Jolla, was an early solo pilot having done it May 30, 1913.

TAKES VOWS — Miss Joyce Lynn Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Johnson, of 6574 Avenida Manana, La Jolla, exchanged vows with Phillip Dale Mouillesseaux, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. ## Dodger Stadium To Be Scene of July Assembly

Among the 55,000 delegates expected at the Los Angeles Dodger Stadium for the "Divine Name" District Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses, July 14-18, will be thousands of children and teenagers. A goodly number are expected from the three Lemon Grove-Spring Valley congregations.

"The world is beset with problems of rebellion and disobedience of youth, but not so the youth among Jehovah's Witnesses," said Edgar A. Flinn, Spring Valley presiding minister. "This is because they don't want to become a part of the heavy burden placed on society. They have found the means of coping with the problems by regular attendance at their assemblies and by weekly study of the Bible with the entire family.

"It is vital in these critical times that families do things together," continued Flinn. "This is most important when it applies to family worship and recreation. The five-day assembly will feature timely information dealing with youths and their problems, as well as counsel for grownups. It is also designed to teach respect for authority and to show parents how to communicate with their children."

The assembly program with 29 featured speakers will include many other participants. All sessions are open to the public. It is being sponsored by the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, who conduct Bible education work throughout the world.

Post Office Plans Celebration Today

The United States Post Office Department will officially change it's name today, becoming the United States Postal Service.

The Lemon Grove Post Office will celebrate the change, along with 35,000 other post offices in the United States. The employees of the Lemon Grove Post Office have been making plans to commemorate the change.

The lobbies will be decorated with Historic Stamp Posters which may be purchased from the Postal Service for a nominal fee.

Lemon Grove Postmaster Frenchy Faucher said that no real change in the service would be noticeable until October when the new postal manuals were to be issued.

Employment will be handled by the Post Office Department instead of Federal Civil Service. Tests for jobs will be entirely different from those now given.

Faucher saw no sudden improvement in mail service. "It will come eventually, he said, "but not until the new operation gets into swing."

Short-Term Licenses Available

Shorter licenses will be available for newly eligible dogs beginning today, according to San Diego County Veterinarian Dr. H. C. Johnstone. Dr. Johnstone said half-year licenses will go for $2.50 and 18-month licenses will be reduced to $7.50. Owners of dogs which should have been licensed earlier can get the short licenses but will be charged a $2 penalty, Dr. Johnstone said.

A rabies vaccination valid for the term of the license is needed, Dr. Johnstone said, and may be obtained at regular low-cost rabies clinics at County animal shelters. Clinics are scheduled to be held each Thursday from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the South County Animal Shelter, 8661 Jamacha blvd., Spring Valley.

Dr. Johnstone said a survey of unlicensed dogs is being conducted in the San Diego city limits, and includes house-to-house contacts by deputy license inspectors.

Services Tomorrow For Former Supervisor Bird

Funeral services will be held for David W. Bird, 73, of National City, Friday, July 2 3:30 p.m. at Berge-Roberts Mortuary, 607 National ave., National City.

He died Saturday of cancer at Chula Vista hospital.

In all, he spent 41 years as a public official starting with posts in National City as fire chief, councilman and mayor.

He was known here for his services as supervisor, a post he held from 1940 until 1964.

New Train to be Tested On L.A.-San Diego Run

WASHINGTON — A new supertrain capable of speeds up to 170 miles per hour will be demonstrated in San Diego, probably this month, Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, announced.

He said he has been assured by the Department of Transportation that at his request a prototype TurboTrain will be made available for a trial run between San Diego and Los Angeles. Only two of the trains have been constructed, by United Aircraft Corp., and both are under lease to DoT. They normally operate between New York and Boston, and have not yet been on the West Coast.

Van Deerlin said that on a recent test run between Washington and Baltimore a TurboTrain hit speeds of 120, far faster than conventional trains but in the case of the Turbo limited by bad track conditions. It reached 170 m.p.h. this spring at the high-speed ground transportation testing grounds operated by DoT at Pueblo, Col.

The Turbo could not be expected to open up completely between San Diego and Los Angeles, either, since the 128-mile railroad right-of-way is bisected by 105 grade crossings and includes more than 35 miles of single track.

"Riding the TurboTrain is a unique experience, almost like being in a jet aircraft," Van Deerlin said. "It accelerates with a jet-like whine, but then travels with a smoothness limited only by roadbed conditions." He said suitable trackage for the Turbo and other high-speed trains would be "expensive, but no more so than new freeways of comparable length."

The three-car TurboTrains carry up to 144 passengers, and Van Deerlin said he hoped newsmen, local officials and community leaders could be invited to come aboard for the run out of San Diego.

The San Diego lawmaker said the TurboTrains would "not necessarily" be competitive with the Aerotrain tracked air cushion vehicles (TACV) being developed by the Rohr Corp., in Chula Vista.

"The TACV is a basically more advanced transportation system than the TurboTrain, and would be clearly more suitable for certain types of service, such as airport access and high-density commuter runs," Van Deerlin said.

The Aerotrain also requires special T-shaped guideways, while TurboTrain can operate over conventional tracks.

Van Deerlin serves on the House Commerce Committee, which has jurisdiction over railroad and other transportation matters.

Airport Operation 'For the Birds'

If anyone thinks the County of San Diego's airport operation is for the birds, its Director C. P. Barnett would be the first to agree.

Trees around the county's Gillespie Field were scheduled for topping in mid-June. Then Mrs. Wayne E. Gay of 9701 Prospect ave., Santee, wrote Barnett that trees to be topped contained "a dozen morning dove nests and several hummingbird nests."

Mrs. Gay and her birds won the day, as Barnett decided the planes would just have to come in a little higher for the next month until the birds hatch and are on their own.

Dodgers Seek Pennant In Season's Finale Today

The Dodgers attempt to complete a rags to riches story this afternoon when they meet Mission Van and Storage in the final regularly scheduled game of the 1971 Lemon Grove Little League Major division.

Mired in last place when competition ended a year ago, the Dodgers currently stand at 17 wins and three losses, one game ahead of Walker Scott and need only a decision today to ice the frosting on their championship cake.

A pair of victories last week, including a 2-1 nod over Walker Scott, pushed the Dodgers into undisputed possession of the top spot. Walker Scott is 16-4 while Mission Storage and Murphy Plumbing rest at 11-9 for a third place tie, Imperial Meats is 8-12, Food Basket and Lemon Grove Plaster both show 6-14 readings and White Construction is 5-15.

Righthander Chris Flores outdueled ace John Barrow in the Dodger-Walker Scott showdown with only a home run by Mark Foster to mar his effort. Foster's blow off the scoreboard in right field was his sixth of the year.

Jim Schroeder, Flores and Steve Goins all collected first inning singles with Goins' blow driving in the two runs. Flores struck out nine.

Tom Bolen hurled a one-hitter for the Dodgers in an 11-0 breeze over White Construction. Schroeder and Butch Cushman both picked up two hits to back Bolen's stint which included no walks and errorless ball by his mates.

Walker Scott recovered from its loss for an 8-1 trouncing of Mission Storage as Mark Foster fanned 11 and surrendered five hits. Barrow and Foster both banged two hits while Mission's Glenn Nye came through with a pair.

Murphy Plumbing split two affairs, edging Imperial Meats 9-1 but dropping a 6-3 nod to Food Basket. Tom Castelanos and Phil Oyos shared mill duties in the victory and Bruce Franks singled in the winning run in the last of the sixth.

Food Basket's Ron Truett set down Murphy on two hits and was bothered only by Craig Leonetti's circuit clout, his league-leading ninth of the campaign.

Imperial Meats tallied three times in the last of the fifth on four hits to edge White Construction 3-2. Craig Simpson was a hard-luck loser as Mayo Smith doubled in two runs and came around to score on an overthrow. Mark Williamson and Troy Keogh divided pitching for Imperial Meats and Mark Cervantes had two bingles.

Lemon Grove Lath and Plaster also halved its two efforts, a 5-3 verdic over Food Basket and a 10-3 loss to Mission Storage. Rex Jenner whiffed 12 in the first game and Brian Luscomb and Mike O'Brien each had two hits. Mark Jacobsmeier lost it despite 10 strikeouts.

Mission's win was gained with a six run uprising in the third inning and three more in the fourth. Mike Sperla and Glenn Nye pitched for Mission and Dave Terrel and Nye cracked out two hits each.

The second no-hit contest of the Intermediate division was posted when Ken Kaufman turned the trick for Glencoe Foods in a 16-0 rout of Cal West Dry Wall. Kaufman also pounded two homers.

LOOP CHAMPS — The Peters Home & Garden Center Yankees last week clinched the pennant in the Valley de Oro Little League's minor division, after blasting the Viking Fence Angels, 12-0. The win left the Yanks with a 19-1 season record with one more game to play this afternoon.

McIntyre, Jim Hitt In Top 5

Pat McIntyre, of Spring Valley, and Jim Hitt, of Lemon Grove, were both among the top five finishers at Cajon Speedway last Saturday night when the checkered flag came down on the 30-lap main event.

Hitt, who is currently in first place in the point standings at the track, took fifth place in the race, which was won by Jerry Osborn, of National City. Osborn, in winning the race broke the record for the race with his time of 9:40.21. The old record was held by Ed Hale, of Lemon Grove.

McIntyre, who started in the sixth racing position, moved through traffic to the second spot after ten laps.

Osborn held a six-length lead over the field at that point, but McIntyre narrowed the gap slowly. Osborn held a three-length lead when he took the checkered flag.

On tap at the track next week is a Fourth of July weekend open competition, with a 50-lap feature race, on Saturday.

Also scheduled tomorrow night will be the return of the super sprint cars and mini-stock cars. Over 50 cars are expected to be on hand.

'Cinderella Team' Drops Pair To Finish Second

Cinderella lost her glass slipper last week.

The Lemon Grove Boosters Club Angelettes, in the role of the Cinderella team of the Lemon Grove Bobby Sox League since the second-half season began, lost two games last week to fall into second place.

After burning up the league during the first part of the second-half season, the Angelettes dropped its first contest of the week to the Severin Realty Orioles, 11-8.

The loss dropped the team into second place, a game behind the Quota Club Migets, 34-10 victors over the Associated Engineers Swingers.

Cinderella still had a chance to grab the flag, when the Angelettes and Migets squared off. But the Migets ran away with the game, 16-8, and killed all Angelette dreams of the pennant.

Both teams finished up the season with victories — the Angelettes blasting the Lions Club Lionettes, 20-8, and the Migets squeezing out an 11-10 decision over the Skyline TV Gremlins.

The win over the Gremlins sewed up second-half laurels for the Migets, as they now hold an 8-2 record for the year, two games better than the second place Angelettes and a game better than the best possible record the Gremlins could compile.

The Gremlins were to play two games this week, and two victories would give them a 7-3 record and second place.

In other action last week, the Orioles blasted the Swingers, 41-1, and did away with the Lionettes, 14-5.

A playoff game is planned for this evening at the Lemon Grove Junior High field, pitting the first-half winners against the second-half champs.

Winners of the first-half season were the Lions Club Lionettes, who had problems in the second half season, but played two games this week in preparation for the "big one."

In the last game of the season for the Migets, Debbie Sullivan, the team's ace pitcher, hiked her strikeout total for the year to 104, tops in the league. She was presented with the game ball.

An ice cream social was given for the Migets by the Quota Club, complete with a cake decorated with Quota Club colors.

All star selections will be announced next Thursday evening at a meeting at Lemon Grove Junior High School.

Soccer Clinic Held

A soccer-football clinic for youngsters interested in the Los Toros soccer club pee wee division was held Saturday at Mt. Miguel High School with coaches from several local teams giving demonstrations.

Organized by Mrs. Elaine Magazzu, similar clinics resulted earlier in the expansion of the league from two to six teams. Several more teams will be formed this fall, Mrs. Magazzu said.

Mrs. Magazzu said that persons interested in helping out with the league can contact her at 461-7532.

New York City has 400,000 employees.

Wards Wins Pair, Keeps Loop Lead

Montgomery Ward won two contests last week to remain atop the standings in the Spring Valley Pony League, stretching its lead to two full games after State Farm Insurance was upset by Big Bear Market.

The Ward bats boomed for nine runs in the team's first game of the week, spelling a 9-2 disaster for last place Golden Bowl.

In the second game for Wards, Big Bear Market fell, 5-3. The game was played only a day after Big Bear had knocked off second place State Farm, 3-2, on the strength of a four-bagger by J. P. Koval.

In other games played last week, Golden Bowl upset Big Bear Market, 3-1, as Pat Kornegay struck out 15 batters for the winners; State Farm belted Farmer's Center, 11-2; and Farmer's Center blanked Golden Bowl, 5-0, on R. D. Peruchiti's no-hitter.

In the Farmer's Center-Golden Bowl affair, Peruchiti struck out 17 Golden Bowl batters and helped his own cause with three hits in four trips to the platter.

All Types of Pyrotechnics On Padres List This Week

Fireworks on the Fourth will be early this year.

They'll start on the field tonight at 7:30 as the Padres and the Dodgers begin a bombastic three-game series.

These freeway foes will continue their argument Friday evening and wind-up hostilities Saturday night.

And the conclusion is guaranteed to be colossal.

A gigantic fireworks display, the biggest ever attempted in Southern California, is the feature of Saturday's spectacular.

An unusual and varied assortment of pyrotechnics has been assembled for the show, which will begin as soon as the Padres and Dodgers conclude their own fireworks on the field.

But that's not all.

A pre-game show has been arranged to honor our nation's birth, with the famed 50-State Flag Team and the Drug and Bugle Corps from the Marine Corps Recruit Depot scheduled to perform.

The "Salute to Our Country" show is all part of God Bless America Week and representatives from San Diego County youth organizations will march before the game in a holiday tribute.

"We are planning the most colorful, exciting and enjoyable Fourth of July celebration possible," said Padre president E. J. Bavasi.

The Dodgers are a fiery item themselves.

Reluctant to ignite at the start of the season, Walt Alston's congregation suddenly righted themselves and scrambled into the thick of the pennant race.

The Padres in the past have played the Dodgers to a standstill at San Diego Stadium. Entering this year's tournament, the clubs divided 18 games here.

Then after the Dodgers depart, not to return until September, the pennant-hungry Cardinals arrive for a Sunday afternoon skirmish and night contests on Monday and Wednesday.

Excellent seats are still available for all the Dodger games including Saturday's fireworks extravaganza, as well as for the entire series with St. Louis. Tickets may be purchased at the Padre stadium box office, open daily starting at 10 a.m., or at Ticketron agencies located throughout San Diego County.

Ticket reservations also may be made by telephone. Simply call 283-4494.

SVWC Takes Two of Three For First Place

Spring Valley Woman's Club last week continued its winning ways in the Spring Valley Bobby Sox League, taking two games and losing a third.

SVWC blasted second place O'Dell Realty, 18-7, managed to get by Ham's Painting/Easter Plumbing, 11-10, and lost a heartbreaker to third place Optimist Club, 12-11.

O'Dell Realty won its only other game of the week to retain the second spot. O'Dell outslugged Foster Freeze/Thomas Disposal, 19-14.

Optimist Club took two of three games to remain in third place. In addition to its victory over SVWC, Optimist belted fourth place Norm's Gulf, 21-19, but lost to last place Johnson Excavating, 14-13.

Norm's Gulf bounced back after its loss to Optimist to beat Galbreath Realty, 26-5, but lost to Ham's Painting/Easter Plumbing, 24-17. Norm's is in fourth place with an 8-7 record.

In the minor league, Broyles & Schaffer/Sportland missed a chance to move into a tie with Delp Plastering for first place when Delp edged B&S/S, 4-2 on the strong pitching of Beth Kelley. Denise Christensen pitched a fine ballgame for the losers.

S & H Martinizing, Luigi's Tied For First In S.V. Little League

With just three weeks left in the Spring Valley Little League season, things have been getting pretty crowded around the first place spot in the standings.

Luigi's Restaurant, a team that looked unbeatable in the early season but that fell to second place a couple of weeks ago has emerged once again to own a share of the top spot.

Seventh place Spring Valley Kiwanis pulled off a shocker in the first game of the week last week by knocking off first place S & H One Hour Martinizing, 6-2, on Kurt Needham's two-run homer.

Martinizing averted total disaster later in the week by clinging to a 4-3 decision over Kiwanis.

Luigi's Restaurant, meanwhile, blanked Kelton Homes twice on the week to move into a first place tie. Both of Luigi's wins were by 5-0 counts. In Luigi's first game, Steve Haney struck out 14 of 21 batters in fostering a three-hit shutout for the victors. In the rematch, Russ Palser started on the mound for Luigi's, but left after six innings with the score knotted at 0-0. Palser belted a grand slam home run in the seventh inning, however, to break open the ball game.

Al's Electric missed a chance to take a piece of first place when they lost a pair of games to Arnold & Company, 5-3 and 7-3.

The wins for Arnold put the team in a tie with Al's for third place. Both teams have 11-6 records, two games off the pace.

In the only other major league games of the week, Jackson Supply split a pair with Spring Valley Shopping Center, winning the first game 7-4, but dropping the rematch, 3-0.

In the intermediate league, it was Cecil's Hancock winning two games to move into a tie for first place with North Island Test Line, who split a pair.

Cecil's trounced Mary Browne Realtor, 9-0, and did away with Colorama TV, 7-1.

North Island Test Line got by Art's Lumber, 5-4, but couldn't cut it against Oscar's Drive In, dropping a 4-3 decision.

In the week's only other action, Oscar's Drive In beat Colorama TV to move into third place, and Art's Lumber dropped Mary Browne to fourth with a 16-0 win.

In the minor league, Loyal Order of the Moose continued along unbeaten, knocking off Colwall Insurance 10-4 and 18-9. Spring Valley Post Office beat Jim Niccoll Racing twice to knock the latter team out of a first place tie. Post Office scored 8-1 and 3-0 wins to take over second place.

In third place is Pat's Rentals, who beat Tea Pot Inn 16-2 and 11-10. Niccoll's Racing is in fourth place.

In the rookie league, Stroh's Lomita Bowl won its only game of the week to take over undisputed possession of first place as Polar Frozen Foods dropped to second after splitting a pair of games.

The display will start at 9 p.m. Sunday on the vacant land at the west end of Eastridge dr. The display can be seen from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

District Passes Preliminary Budget Of $3.89 Million

A preliminary budget calling for an increase of about $300,000 was approved by the Lemon Grove School District Board of Trustees at a regular meeting Monday night.

Presented to the board was an adjusted preliminary budget of $3,936,352, including a reserve of about $394,000. The budget presented would have called for an operating tax increase of about 15 cents and an estimated overall increase of 17 cents, which includes operational costs as well as non-operational costs such as interest on loans.

It was noted that by reducing the reserve by $45,000, the tax increase could be lowered to about 5 cents for operational, or about 7 cents overall.

Trustees shaved $45,000 from the reserve system and accepted the $3.89 million preliminary budget.

In other action at the meeting, trustees approved several routine matters and discussed the Imperial-80 planned residential development.

Paul Reynolds reported to the board on work that has been done regarding an agreement between the school district and the developers.

The board voted at an earlier meeting to give approval to a tentative map contingent on receiving an agreement from the developers assuring the district of compliance with an ordinance that requires developers to provide temporary school facilities for youngsters in the development.

Several ways have been discussed regarding how developers would meet the ordinance, including providing portable classrooms and allowing the district to use houses in the development as temporary classrooms.

Telephone Rates Going Up –But Color Sets Are Free

Telephoning may be more fun in the future — but it's also going to cost more.

This is the result of a California Public Utilities Commission authorization of Pacific Telephone to increase its net intrastate revenues by $73 million a year.

The PUC ordered PacTel to install at least $750,000,000 a year in new plants over the next three years "to decrease the likelihood of service problems."

PacTel had requested an increase of $195 million; $52 million more than granted.

According to Al Lyons, manager of the branch serving Lemon Grove, Spring Valley, and La Mesa, some of the increase will come from 1-party residential lines which will be increased 75 cents a month to $5.65.

Flat rate business phones will increase from $14.50 to $15.65 — but not for long. Within a few months these will be phased out and a measured business charge will be substituted. The basic rate will be lower but a charge of .0470 cents a call over the maximum will be charged. Basic rate for 200 calls a month will be $16.40; for 80 calls a month, $7.55. After that total, the unit rate will be added.

All is not grim, however. Lyons said that the initial $5 color phone charge will be eliminated and that subscribers who have paid for the 25-foot phone cord, may have it re-installed free of charge when moved.

PUC also authorized PacTel to reduce maximum direct-distance-dialing intrastate from 85 cents to 49 cents for 3 minutes between 11 p.m. and 8 a.m. The authorization was said to be "an incentive for subscribers to use DDD."

Art Mart Scheduled

The San Diego County Art Mart Association announced last week that the group's annual summer art mart festival will be held July 10 and 11, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. both days.

Among those offering their works will be 22 artists from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

They are: Patricia Suggs, Edward Suggs, Rita Small, Lawrence Jones, Helen Goodall, Elton Goodall, Bernice Anderson, Arus Brandon, H. E. Craddoct, Nina Hostetler, and Kenneth Hostetler.

Others are Buelah Greenlee, Charles Kastringer, Amy O'Toole, Rbert O'Toole, Gloria Palmer, Tony Reinbolt, Nell Smith, Loretta Thompson, Aron Wiley, and Emily Austin

Two Receive Degrees

Michael E. Kreger and David T. Cowan, both of Lemon Grove, were among 200 graduates to receive bachelor of arts degrees from Clairemont Men's College at the school's 24th annual commencement exercises last month.

Kreger, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Kreger, of 2127 Eldora st., Lemon Grove, was a literature major, graduating Cum Laude. During his stay at the school, he was a dormatory president and played on the school's baseball team.

Cowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Cowan, of 1816 Ramon st., Lemon Grove, was also a Cum Laude graduate, majoring in literature.

'Tar Pot' Situation Handled

The Lemon Grove Fire Department commended two young men this week after their coolheadedness averted a critical situation involving a "tar pot" fire.

The two men, Rick Bryan and Richard Chandler, employees of Hutchison Rofing in Lemon Grove, were heating the tar pot to clean it out when it caught fire.

According to the fire department report, the two quickly removed butane tanks used in heating the pot and sprayed the blaze with a misty spray from a garden hose.

The blaze took place at 4:55 p.m. Friday.

Summer Workshop Set At Grossmont College

Grossmont College's Office of Community Services will offer a special summer workshop in Indian Cultural History starting July 6. The workshop course titled "The Dieguenos and their Neighbors," will be presented on six consecutive Tuesdays from 7 to 10 p.m.

Commencing with a geological, physiographic and ecological background of San Diego County, the course will trace the relationship of the social, political and religious structure of Indians in Southern California back more than 10,000 years to compare them with the Indians of today, including reservation, nonreservation and intergroup organizations.

Mrs. Florence Shipek, instructor of Anthropology at the University of San Diego, will serve as instructor for the course. There are no registration or tuition fees for this special community services course. Interested persons need only to attend the first session to enroll in the class.

Craven's 5th District where the current population level is 13.7% over the average and in Jim Bear's District where it is 14.9% too low. These assessments were based on the 1970 Census.

Boney's plan has something good for nearly everyone. Walsh can spend more of his time in his narrowed district, especially the La Jolla area where he lives. Scheidle will have more city folk who admire him; Boney will get back his unincorporated east county where he lived for many years and served so well as a supervisor and where he is presently building a new home; Bear will get more of the south where his Democratic political philosophy is in line with those residents, and Craven will be able to cut down his southward travel into the east county where the problems are greatly different from those in the north county where he lives.

Thus, each of the supervisors can work more effectively since he will be in his own baliwick with its politically friendly atmosphere.That means there can be a better line of communictaion to the county lawmakers. This interprets readily into a happier constituency. Less expensive? Hardly. But happier and equally important, more effective. Yes!

Youth's Career Dies In Marijuana Garden

Gary Wayne Taylor, 21, of 8459 Adams st., Lemon Grove, was put on two years' probation and fined $150 by Judge Francis E. Gallagher. The young man had pleaded guilty on June 3 to possession of marijuana.

Taylor's probation report to Judge Gallagher showed his disappointment over his conviction. His probation officer reported the young man said he would have to go to Canada to medical school and to practice. Medicine is one of the professions that will not accept persons convicted of felonies.

Sheriff's deputies saw the plants growing and obtained a search warrant. They raided the Lemon Grove premises on Feb. 26. After his arrest, Taylor spent five days in the county jail and was then released on his recognizance.
